Fans can purchase season passes to sit in a designated reserved section on the lower level. All Season Passes holders are permitted to sit anywhere in the arena, including the area directly behind the Florida bench. In addition, a Season Pass also includes a general admission ticket to a men's basketball game in the event of a doubleheader.

Another option fans can purchase is the Family Pass. For only $40, a family of four can attend every Gator women's basketball game during the 2010-11 season.

With the purchase of a Gator Gold Card, Gator fans can get into every regular-season women's basketball, volleyball and gymnastics event, but it is not valid for doubleheader games scheduled with the men's basketball team.

THE GATOR GOLD CARD & DOUBLEHEADERS

Gator Gold Card holders will need to purchase a ticket to get into the Women's game for those handful of doubleheaders. Gator Gold Card holders can sit in the reserved section for all other Women's Basketball games.

Also this year, single-game tickets for women's basketball on doubleheader days will be available to purchase until halftime. Fans will have the option to purchase either a men's ticket that will get them into both games or only a women's ticket valid through the conclusion of the women's game.

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA HEAD COACH

FOURTH YEAR AS UF HEAD COACH • SIXTH YEAR OVERALL AS A HEAD COACH

Combine passion, pride, toughness, intensity, humor, wittiness, competitiveness, leadership and mix in a healthy dose of a swagger and you have Amanda Butler, who in 2010-11 will enter her fourth year as head coach of the University of Florida women's basketball team.

Every step along her career path to date has seemingly resulted in another record, milestone or accomplishment.

Take the 2008-09 season for example. The mere fact that Florida was even mentioned as a possible NCAA Tournament team by season's end was remarkable when such an accomplishment seemed nearly impossible just two years prior to her arrival in Gainesville.

In fact, the 2008-09 season will go down as one of the most successful campaigns in program history.

In addition to tying the school record with 24 victories during the year, Florida marched into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the seventh time in history. In the team's first trip to the round of 32 since 2004, the 2008-09 squad had its season close on the road at top-ranked and eventual NCAA champion Connecticut. Florida ended the year rated among the top-25 in both national polls for the first time since 2002.

Also during the 2008-09 season, the Gators compiled a program-record 15-game winning streak, as well as a record seven-game run against Southeastern Conference foes that helped UF finish tied for fourth in the 12-team league and earn a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament for the seventh time in the 30-year history of the event. The 2008-09 Gators found themselves in the top-10 of the Associated Press national poll, when the media tabbed UF No. 9 on Feb. 9, 2009, the team's first top-10 showing since Feb. 12, 2001.

When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press national poll, Butler joined an elite list of women. She became one of only 24 women in the history of NCAA Division I women's basketball who have played for a team that was ranked in the AP Top-25 and later coached a team that earned a top-25 ranking. Even more rare is the fact the Butler played for and coached the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking, becoming only the sixth woman ever to accomplish that feat.

Statistically, the 2008-09 Gators shattered the program record by hitting 221 three-pointers, breaking the old mark of 179 set the previous season.

The list of team records set or tied, as well as individual accomplishments is long, but in the end came as little surprise to a team that adopted the mantra of being "Bigger & Better" at the beginning of the 2008-09 year and then backed it up with unselfish play, inspiring coaching leadership and a belief that it could achieve.

"She's a competitor. She is fierce on the court, but a fun person to be around off it. She played at Florida, so I think she truly bleeds orange and blue. She won't settle for anything less than number one."

-- UF JUNIOR JORDAN JONES ON AMANDA BUTLER

Amanda Butler was in her second season as a Gator assistant coach when DeLisha Milton was named the program's first First-Team WBCA All-American.

In spite of losing to graduation two of the most statistically impressive players in program history, the 2009-10 Gators marched along and found a way to earn an appearance in their third consecutive postseason tournament.

The 2009-10 season marked the 10th time in Butler's 15 years on the sidelines her team has competed in the postseason, including five NCAA Tournament appearances.

Florida has had eight different full-time women's basketball head coaches and Butler is the first to lead the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first three years with the program.

In her five years as a collegiate head coach, Butler's teams have posted a 64-17 record at home, including a 38-13 mark (a 74.5 winning percentage) during her three years at her alma mater.

During her initial three years at Florida, Butler has compiled 58 wins, seven more than her college coach Carol Ross, whose 247 victories in 12 years are the most in UF program history.

Ross has called Butler the "toughest Gator ever to wear the Florida uniform." That grittiness and feistiness held true on the sideline in 2009-10, when she ruptured her left Achilles tendon on Oct. 24, 2009, as she was quarterbacking her then-undefeated flag football team in The Swamp Bowl, the name given to the playoff round of the on-campus league event.

In spite of the injury, Butler never missed a beat, attending the he Backcourt Club's annual membership drive event and the team's practice the next day. She underwent successful surgery on Oct. 26 and was back on the sideline Oct. 28. The next day, she volunteered her time at the Children's Miracle Network Art Auction that featured all art created by the pediatric patients at Shands Hospital in Gainesville.

During Butler's three-year tutelage in Gainesville, a Gator has been named First-Team All-SEC three times and awarded a spot on the All-SEC Freshman Team twice.

A total of six Gators earned a place on the 2009-10 SEC Academic Honor Roll, tying for the most of any other league team.

In both of her first two seasons, the Gators finished higher in the final Southeastern Conference regular-season standings than predicted during the preseason by both the coaches and media, who tabbed Florida to finish sixth in 2008-09. The Gators' 9-5 league record tied with Tennessee for fourth place, the team's highest finish since the 2003-04 squad also tied for fourth in the SEC race. The 2008-09 Gators earned a first-round bye in the SEC Tournament after holding the tiebreaker against the Lady Vols, whom they defeated during the regular season.

"Coach Butler's a great coach. She's teaches you to work hard in practice. When you don't feel like practicing or going to conditioning workouts, she helps you understand the importance of it late in the season and you're more motivated to work hard.

"She taught me everything to this stage of my career. She taught me how to take care of the ball and about making good decisions on and off the court."

-- 2009 First-Team All-SEC Performer Sha Brooks (2005-09) on Amanda Butler

After inheriting virtually the same squad that won just nine games the previous year (2006-07), Butler and her staff produced the greatest one-year turnaround by a coach in their first year in program history, winning 19 games while facing 17 different teams that earned a postseason bid. Butler also became the program's first head coach to guide Florida to a postseason berth in their debut year, as the squad competed in the WNIT, reaching the third round.

Amanda Butler became the first Gator head coach to guide the team to a postseason berth in their first year with the program and the first to reach the postseason in her first two years at the helm, as the 2008-09 Gators competed in the NCAA Tournament.

Florida shattered the 2007-08 preseason expectations of the SEC head coaches, who picked the Gators to finish 11th in the final standings. The Gators finished four places ahead of those predictions, posting a 6-8 record and tying for seventh in the mighty SEC that once again produced two of the Final Four teams, including the national champion.

After seeing first-hand Butler's version of the Gators, Hall of Fame and SEC-veteran coach Van Chancellor praised, "I can remember when she (Coach Butler) played here (at UF) and she was gritty and tough and this team has exactly her personality. I think she's done a great job."

The transformation in the Gators' attitude began on April 13, 2007, when UF Athletics Director Jeremy Foley identified Butler, one of the nation's top young coaching talents as well as a former four-year starter and two-year assistant coach for Florida, as the ninth head coach in Gator women's basketball history.

Amanda's parents - Steve & Barbara Butler - drove from Mt. Juliet, Tenn., to Gainesville to attend Amanda's introductory press conference when she was named Gator Head Coach.

Gators (community outreach), workshops and presentations. The 2008-09 squad placed second in the final tally and third in 2009-10.

She returned to her alma mater, where she played for the Gators from 1990-94. Butler earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Exercise and Sport Sciences with honors on May 6, 1995, and was awarded a Master of Exercise and Sport Sciences on Aug. 9, 1997.

Butler, the youngest of the SEC's 12 head coaches, turned 38 when UF played its first-round game during the 2010 SEC Tournament and possesses 15 years of college coaching experience, including two as the head coach of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and now three with the Gators.

During her two years as head coach at Charlotte, Butler compiled a 40-22 record that included two WNIT berths and a share of the 49ers first-ever Atlantic 10 Conference regular-season championship. Her debut season resulted in an overall record of 21-9, the most wins ever by a Charlotte coach in their first year, as Butler was recognized as the league's Coach of the Year. The 2006-07 49ers posted a 19-13 overall mark, advancing to the WNIT second round before losing to Virginia, 74-72.

Amanda Butler was the Gators' starting point guard when UF earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid. She started 99 of the 114 games she played during her four-year career.

Butler joined the Charlotte staff on May 4, 2001, as an assistant under first-year head coach Katie Meier and helped the 49ers to a 16-13 record, the program's first winning season in eight years. In her second year as an assistant coach at Charlotte, the 49ers captured the 2003 Conference USA Regular-Season title and earned the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

She was promoted to Associate Head Coach the following season. When Meier departed one year later to take the head job at the University of Miami (Fla.), Butler became the logical choice to assume the 49ers head position.

Butler emerged as a proven recruiter, bringing to Charlotte four All-Atlantic 10 selections, four Conference USA All-Freshman team members and one All-Conference USA honoree.

She also embraced the local community, as 23 of the top 24 attendances for women's basketball at Charlotte came during Butler's five seasons with the 49ers.

Prior to her arrival in Charlotte, Butler spent four seasons (1997-2001) as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Tennessee, where then-head coach Susie Gardner hired her to take over the team's recruiting efforts. It didn't take long for Butler to make an impact.

One of Butler's recruits, Brooke Armistead, became the OVC Freshman of the Year in 2000 and closed her career as the 2003 OVC Player of the Year, as well as a Second-Team Verizon Academic All-American. Also under Butler's keen eye for talent, Austin Peay became the first OVC school to land back-to-back league Freshmen of the Year recipients, with Armistead in 2000 followed the next season by Gerlonda Hardin, who emerged as the league's 2004 Player of the Year and collected Third-Team Academic All-America honors. Armistead

"Coach Butler is very energetic and motivating. She really cares about people on and off the court. She's easy to talk to and very playful and funny."

– 2009 First-Team All-SEC Performer Marshae Dotson (2005-09) on Amanda Butler

UF Coaches through their first 3 years

Six coaches have guided the Gators at least three years, and Amanda Butler's 58 victories are the most compiled through the first three seasons.

became the school's all-time leading scorer and the first player in APSU history to be drafted by the WNBA.

Her final season working under Gardner resulted in the Lady Govs' winning the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament for just the second time in program history and making their second-ever trip to the NCAA Tournament, joining the 1996 APSU team in the "Big Dance" and sparking a run of four consecutive NCAA appearances for the program.

"Even though we are from the same hometown, I never really met Amanda until she became my assistant coach at Austin Peay," shared Gardner, who Butler hired as an assistant coach at Florida on April 13, 2007. "Before Amanda joined the staff, we weren't really winning. Amanda brought in the great players who helped us turn the corner and become a consistent NCAA Tournament team. Even though she was a young assistant, watching the way she managed the game and the way she interacted with people, I knew that Amanda was special and that one day soon she would be a head coach."

Given her talents as a collegiate coach, it comes as no surprise that Butler has played a role in some of the most successful seasons in Florida history. Upon graduation, then-Florida coach Ross hired Butler as the Gators' assistant coach. That 1995-96 squad compiled a 21-9 record and earned a berth into the NCAAs. The following season, the Gators won a program-record 24 games and advanced to the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, falling to Old Dominion, 53-51.

Florida enjoyed two of its best finishes in the SEC Tournament during Butler's time as an assistant, with the Gators advancing to the semifinals for the first time in program history during the 1996 campaign and followed it with the team's first – and still only – appearance in the championship game.

On the court, the 5-foot-8 guard immediately took charge of the team from her first day at Florida, also the rookie season for Ross as head coach, as Butler started 99 of the 114 games she played during her career. During her junior and senior seasons, she led the Gators to the first two NCAA Tournament appearances in program history that began a run of seven consecutive trips to the "Big Dance."

Butler, who was a three-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll and was voted a finalist on the CoSIDA Academic All-America District Team, completed her Gator career ranked second on the program's all-time assists list with 401, while ranking among top-three for career three-pointers made (77) and attempted (278). The team captain during her senior season, Butler helped the Gators compile 73 victories during her tenure, the best four-year total in school history at that time, and to 21 SEC wins, also the most during a four-year span.

A native of Mt. Juliet, Tenn., Butler enjoyed a stellar prep career at Mt. Juliet High School, where she tallied over 1,400 points and received All-Mid-State honors and All-District honors for three straight years, including first-team recognition in 1989 and 1990. Butler, who graduated in the top 10 percent of her senior class, is the daughter of Stephen and Barbara Butler.

Amanda Butler's intensity and Gator pride are apparent on and off the court.

Under the development of Amanda Butler, Jennifer George earned a spot on the 2010 SEC All-Freshman Team.

Bonus Butler Bites

- Florida has had eight different full-time women's basketball head coaches and Amanda Butler became one of only two Gator coaches who have won at least 20 games in their second season. In 2008-09, Butler joined Debbie Yow, whose second Gator team went 22-9 in 1984-85; Carol Ross (the winningest Gator coach with 247 victories) posted seven 20-win seasons, but didn't net her first until her fourth year, when Butler was the Gators' senior captain.
- When Florida earned the No. 23 spot in the Dec. 8, 2008 Associated Press ranking, Amanda Butler became only the sixth woman in the history of NCAA Division I Basketball to play for and coach the SAME team that earned a top-25 ranking.
- Amanda Butler is the eighth different full-time head coach in the 36-year history of the Florida women's basketball program ... and the FIRST to guide the Gators to a postseason berth in each of her first three years; in 2007-08, Butler became the FIRST to lead the Gators to a postseason bid in their first year at UF.
- Amanda Butler's 43 wins are the most by a Gator coach through their first two years in program history ... while her 58 are the most through three years at UF
- Amanda Butler was the Gators' starting point guard when UF earned its first-ever NCAA Tournament bid. She started 99 of the 114 games she played during her four-year career.

COACHING STAFF

BRENDA MOCK KIRKPATRICK
ASSISTANT COACH

Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick enters her fourth year in 2010-11 as an assistant coach at the University of Florida, traveling to Gainesville after spending the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons in a similar position at UNC Charlotte under head coach Amanda Butler.

Kirkpatrick gained additional coaching and playing experience from the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC), where she spent two years as an assistant coach at Georgia Tech (2002-04) and was a four-year letterwinner at Wake Forest (1997-2001). She also collected knowledge as an assistant coach at Jacksonville University during the 2004-05 season.

When Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007, it was an easy decision for her to ask Kirkpatrick to make the move to Gainesville with her. During their two years together in Charlotte, the 49ers compiled 40 wins, captured a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earned a pair of postseason berths.

Kirkpatrick, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to her with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Kirkpatrick works closely with fellow assistant coach David Lowery as the Gators' recruiting coordinator, while aids in the scouting of opponents and oversees the development of the guards. Under Kirkpatrick's guidance, Trumae Lucas earned a spot on the 2009 Southeastern Conference All-Freshman Team.

Kirkpatrick also worked with the guards at Charlotte, helping Sakellie Daniels earn First-Team All-Atlantic 10 Conference honors in 2006 and Wendy Stywalt a place on the A-10 All-Rookie Team in 2007.

Prior to joining the 49ers on Butler's inaugural staff, Kirkpatrick was an assistant coach at Jacksonville for the 2004-05 season. During that time, Kirkpatrick worked primarily with the Dolphins' post players, while assuming the role of recruiting coordinator and handling scouting duties.

Kirkpatrick broke into the coaching ranks for the 2002-03 season at Georgia Tech under then-head coach Agnus Berenato, helping the Yellow Jackets win 20 games and earn a bid into the NCAA Tournament for only the second time in program history. Berenato departed following that record-setting campaign for the University of Pittsburgh, while Kirkpatrick remained on staff in Atlanta for 2003-04 before heading to Jacksonville.

A successful collegiate playing tenure afforded Kirkpatrick the opportunity to play professionally in France for Nantes-Reze 44 during the 2001-02 season before launching her coaching career.

Kirkpatrick earned a bachelor's of arts in history and sociology in 2000 and a master of arts in education in 2001 from Wake Forest University. She enjoyed an outstanding career in Winston-Salem, where the two-time captain averaged 7.2 points and 5.1 rebounds per contest during her four-year career. As a senior in 2000-01, the six-foot forward garnered honorable mention All-ACC honors after contributing 10 points and 6.2 rebounds per game. During her time as a Demon Deacon, Kirkpatrick was a first-team academic all-district selection and a four-year member of the ACC Student-Athlete Honor Roll. Despite having to take a medical redshirt (ACL) for the 1996-97 season that delayed her collegiate debut, Kirkpatrick did not miss a game during her four-year career, appearing in all 111 contests and earning 57 starts.

The daughter of Weaver and Brenda Kirkpatrick, she is most often referred to as 'Coach Mock' or 'Mock,' which is her middle name, also her mother's maiden name.

A native of Waynesville, N.C., Mock graduated from Tuscola High School in 1996 as a decorated student and athlete. While maintaining a 4.2 grade point average, she lettered in softball and volleyball in addition to her stellar hoops career, where she was an honorable mention All-America selection by Street & Smith and USA Today in 1995 and 1996, while setting two state records for free throws: most in a game (25-of-25) and most consecutive (39), totaling 51 points in the game she hit 25 free throws.

DAVID LOWERY
ASSISTANT COACH

The 2010-11 season marks the fourth year for David Lowery (pronounced: LOW - rhymes with NOW -ree) as an assistant coach at the University of Florida.

Lowery, like the other Gator assistant coaches, will head an academic team which is comprised of current squad members who report directly to him with progress of their classroom endeavors, supplementing the attention each player receives from Judy Traveis, the Gators' academic advisor.

Additionally, Lowery will work closely with fellow assistant coach Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick as the Gators' recruiting coordinator, while serving as the team's liaison with the UF marketing and promotions department. He will aid in the scouting of opponents and oversees the development of the guards with Kirkpatrick.

An enthusiastic individual, Lowery continued to show dedication to his craft by accepting an invitation to participate during May of 2010 in VILLA 7, considered the "next generation of rising head coaches." Lowery was exposed to a "variety of topics designed to help ease their transition into the first chair," as outlined in the agenda.

During the 2008 summer, Lowery participated in a three-day seminar offered through the Black Coaches Administration entitled, "Achieving Coaching Excellence" or "ACE." At the invitation-only event, Lowery received intense training that exposed the participants to life as a head coach and prepared them for all aspects of being the leader of a program, while helping them become the best assistant they can be.

Lower also has participated in the Nike Coaches Clinic the last two years in Tunica, Miss.

Lowery's path to Gainesville began at Mississippi State University, where he earned his undergraduate degree while spending four years as a student manager and later as a graduate assistant coach for the Lady Bulldogs (2000-01). He left Starkville to take a full-time assistant coaching position at Davidson College (2001-05), before Amanda Butler brought him to UNC Charlotte (2005-07) as part of her inaugural 49ers coaching staff and eventually to Florida when Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007.

During their two years together in Charlotte, Butler and Lowery helped the 49ers compile 40 wins, capture a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earn a pair of postseason berths.

Under Lowery's guidance at Charlotte, senior forward Pam Brown was named First Team All-Atlantic 10 in 2006 and sophomore center Danielle Burgin became a Third-Team All-Atlantic 10 selection in 2007.

Prior to his stint at Charlotte, Lowery was an assistant coach at nearby Davidson College for four years, earning a position on Annette Watt's initial staff which inherited a team that won just nine games the year prior to their arrival. The Wildcats improved their win total each season, culminating in Davidson's 2005 runner-up spot in the Southern Conference - the best regular-season finish in program history.

Lowery earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education from Mississippi State in December of 2000. While completing his undergraduate work, Lowery served as a practice player for the Lady Bulldogs, working with some of the SEC's top players, including LaToya Thomas, who was a four-time first-team Kodak All-American and the No. 1 overall selection in the 2003 WNBA draft. He spent the second half of the 2000-01 season as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State, helping the Lady Bulldogs reach the WNIT in the midst of a six-year run of postseason appearances.

Lowery is a native of Kosciusko, Miss., which sports a population of less than 7,500 and has the distinction of being the birthplace of Oprah Winfrey. He graduated with honors from Kosciusko High School, where he was a four-year letterwinner on the basketball team and was captain of the "Big Red" marching band drumline. Lowery is the father of an 13-year old daughter, Kendall Arvryzena Hightower.

MURRIEL PAGE
ASSISTANT COACH

Murriel Page, one of the most decorated players in University of Florida women's basketball history, returned to her alma mater as an assistant coach in August of 2010 and begins her first year on the Gator sideline.

A consensus first-team All-American at UF in 1998, Page has been playing professional basketball during the 12 years since graduating from the university, including a storied 11-year WNBA career.

"Murriel's professional experience, her passion for the Gators and the quality of person that she is makes her the perfect fit for our program," said head coach Amanda Butler, who was a UF assistant coach during Page's sophomore and junior seasons with the Gators. "We looked at a number of different applicants from a variety of backgrounds and locations and Murriel stood out to everyone.

"Even during her time playing for the Gators, Murriel was a fantastic recruiter," Butler continued. "She has tremendous knowledge of the game on so many levels. She's played against the best basketball players and professional programs in the world. Her work ethic is unmatched and her enthusiasm is contagious. Our players respect her and are excited about learning from her. We're bringing a Gator home and I'm excited about that."

Page, who was inducted into UF's Athletic Hall of Fame on April 17, 2009, suited up for the Gators from 1994-98, when she earned first team All-Southeastern Conference in 1997 and 1998, and was one of three players who was a unanimous selection on the 1998 squad (with Tennessee's Chamique Holdsclaw & Alabama's Dominique Canty). She was a finalist for the 1998 Naismith Player of the Year, a finalist for the 1998 Wade Trophy, among the top vote getters for the 1998 AP National Player of the Year and was one of six finalists for the Honda Award for Basketball, the first-ever Gator to reach this stage of the award. Her 12.6 rebound average per game during her senior year ranked No. 2 nationally (behind Howard's Alicia Hill, 12.8 rpg).

"Not many players get the chance to return to their alma mater and give back to their program so I'm very excited and emotional about this opportunity," said Page, who turned down an offer to play professionally in Spain for the upcoming season to coach the Gators.

"I can bring a lot of excitement and enthusiasm to the sideline and the team," Page continued. "From playing in the WNBA and overseas, I bring another perspective of the game. I've walked the same path as the players are now and know the types of things they are experiencing. Hopefully, I can share my own experiences with them and staff and help bring a championship to the program that I tried so hard to do when I was here."

Shortly upon graduating, Page was the third overall pick in the 1998 WNBA draft, as she became the Washington Mystics' first-ever draft selection in franchise history and voted team captain from 2000-05. In March of 2006, "The Original Mystic" was traded prior to Los Angeles, where she was reunited with former Gator frontcourt mate DeLisha Milton-Jones. Page played with the Sparks for three years and had signed a contract to play with the WNBA's Phoenix Mercury for the 2009 season, but tore her Achilles tendon on the final day of training camp and was unable to play.

In 11 WNBA seasons, Page appeared in 354 games, earning 205 starts, while scoring 2,154 points and collecting 1,603 rebounds. She earned the 1999 and 2000 WNBA Bud Light Shooting Champions Award for leading the league in field goal percentage.

During the WNBA off-season, Page suited up for a number of different professional teams in Spain, including Soller from 2008-10, Baloncesto San Jose in 2007-08, with Hondarribia in 2003-04, 2005-07, Ros Casares in 2004-05 and 2001-02, Venezia in Italy in 2002-03 and Mangueira in Brazil in 2000.

A native of Louin, Miss., Page concluded her collegiate career with 1,915 points and 1,251 rebounds, both of which remain the top two numbers in those respective categories all-time in Gator history. She ranked No. 1 at UF for career double-doubles (65), No. 1 for games played (128), No. 2 all-time at UF for rebounding, No. 2 at UF for scoring and No. 2 at UF for career field goal percentage (55.0%). She was No. 6 all-time in SEC history for rebounding, just 21 behind the 1,272 by Vanderbilt's Wendy Scholtens. Page also totaled 103 double-figure scoring games & 67 double-figure rebounding games. JANNA MAGETTE
ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH

Chemistry and loyalty are two of the most important ingredients found among any successful coaching staff and no one exemplifies those characteristics on Head Coach Amanda Butler's staff stronger than Janna Magette (JAN-uh muh-JET), who in 2010-11 serves as Assistant to the Head Coach for the fourth consecutive year.

When Butler was named the Gators' head coach on April 13, 2007, it was an easy decision for her to ask Magette to make the move to Gainesville with her. Magette and Butler worked for three years together at UNC Charlotte, including the last two when Butler assumed head coaching duties. The more difficult decision may have come on Magette's part, as she willingly chose to forgo her previous role as an assistant coach and welcome different challenges.

"I worked with Amanda for three years at Charlotte and every time she would talk about Florida, she would get so excited. She's so passionate about this place," Magette said. "When the opportunity came to remain part of her staff and work at a place like Florida, it was a very easy decision for me."

Magette wears several different hats for the Gators, performing duties ranging from staff academic liaison to camp and coaching clinic's coordinator to working with practice and class schedules. She also oversees the program's equipment contract and inventory with NIKE and coordinates the team's travel.

In 2009-10, Magette began a new task of assembling the team's annual schedule, as well as serving as the staff's liaison for the program's official website, www.CoachAmandaButler.com.

During the summer of 2009 when Coach Butler was traveling with the U.S. Under 19 World Championships Team, Magette was allowed to fill in as a recruiter, observing and evaluating prep talent at national tournaments. She again slipped on the recruiting hat during the 2010 summer, when assistant coach Susie Gardner left for a head coaching position and Butler took time interviewing to fill that vacancy.

Magette and Butler first began working together at UNC Charlotte, where she was hired by then-49ers head coach Katie Meier as an assistant coach at the start of the 2004-05 season. When Meier left at the end of the year to become the head coach at the University of Miami, Butler was named 49ers' head coach and asked Magette to remain with her in Charlotte. Butler later hired Brenda Mock Kirkpatrick and David Lowery to complete her coaching staff, all of whom made the move to Florida with Butler.

That quartet of Butler, Kirkpatrick, Lowery and Magette gelled during their two years together in Charlotte, as the 49ers compiled 40 wins, captured a share of the 2006 Atlantic 10 regular-season championship and earned a pair of postseason berths.

Magette began her coaching career as an assistant for NCAA Division II Francis Marion University, where she was hired by first-year head coach Valecia Tedder in April of 2004. Among Magette's duties with the Patriots were recruiting, academic support and individual player workouts.

A four-year letter winner from Davidson College, Magette was a standout for the Wildcats, finishing her career as the program's second all-time leading scorer with 1,392 points. A long-range shooting threat, Magette was deadly from behind the arc, holding career marks in three-point field goals (213) and attempts (597). She earned All-Southern Conference honors in her senior campaign, setting a conference record for three-pointers made in a career. She also ranked among the school's all-time leaders in assists (296), steals (239) and free throws made (195-246, 79.3 percent). Among her postseason accolades, Magette earned the 2001 and 2002 Wildcat Award, equivalent to a Most Outstanding Player honor. A two-time Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll member, Magette received her bachelor's degree in religion in 2002.

A native of Hoover, Ala., the daughter of Jimmy and Peggy Magette attended Hoover High School, where she was a two-sport sensation in both basketball and softball. Her prowess on the basketball court caught the eye of several collegiate coaches, including none other than Amanda Butler, who was the recruiting coordinator at Austin Peay State University at the time. Magette opted to attend Davidson, where one of the assistant coaches her senior year was David Lowery.

JEREMY FOLEY
ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Jeremy N. Foley, who has handled virtually every aspect of the University of Florida's $94 million athletic program during his athletic administrative career - which began with an internship in the Gator Ticket Office in 1976 - was named UF's Director of Athletics in March of 1992.

As chief financial officer for the University Athletic Association (UAA), Foley has spearheaded a number of capital improvement projects in the athletic department, also playing a role in the academic advising center on campus.

Foley's commitment to the overall athletic program includes a plan of increased opportunities for women, as three women's sports have been added under his tenure – soccer, softball and, most recently, lacrosse in 2010.

Florida has been equally successful on the field of play and in the classroom during Foley's administrative tenure. The Florida athletic program has ranked among the nation's top 10 for 27-straight years (1983-84, 2009-10) and among the top five for 14 of the last 21 years, according to national all-sport rankings.

The 2009-10 athletic year was among the best in school history, as the Gators finished second in the national all-sports rankings, the best finish in school history. It also marked the first time UF had finished in the top three in consecutive seasons after a third place showing in 2008-09. A school-record 14 teams finished in the top 10, including nine in the top-five.

UF's commitment in the classroom is equally impressive. Under Foley, UF student-athletes have been honored 77 times as Academic All-Americans. The University of Florida has more than 1,800 SEC Academic Honor Roll honorees in the last 11 years.

Foley was named the Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal National Athletic Director of the Year in June of 2006.

Born in Washington, D.C., but calling New London, N.H., home, Foley received his undergraduate degree in 1974 from Hobart College in Geneva, N.Y., where he also coached and scouted for the tradition-rich lacrosse program following graduation. He went on to earn his Master's Degree in Sports Administration from Ohio University in 1976 and then joined the Gator athletic program as an intern in the ticket office.

An avid sports and Boston Red Sox fan, Foley ran the Boston Marathon in a 3:39.51 clip in April of 1995 and completed the course in 3:28.10 in 1998. A dog lover and proud owner of one Labrador retriever, he is involved with the Humane Society and local charities.

LYNDA TEALER
SENIOR ASSOCIATE ATHLETICS DIRECTOR – WOMEN'S SPORTS

Lynda Tealer (TEA-ler), one of the nation's top athletic administrators, joined the University of Florida Athletic Association staff in August of 2003 and was elevated to Senior Associate Athletics Director - Senior Woman Administrator in the fall of 2007.

She oversees the UF women's athletics program, as well as the sports health and the human resources departments, while supervising the women's basketball, gymnastics, lacrosse, softball and volleyball programs. Recently, Tealer headed the committee that explored adding a 21st varsity sport to the Gator program; the end result was the announcement of a Gator women's lacrosse team that began competition during the 2009-10 season.

Tealer came to the UAA from the Southland Conference, where she was an Associate Commissioner since April of 2000. During her tenure in Frisco, Texas, Tealer served as the conference's senior woman administrator and oversaw the league's regular season and championship competitions. She also assisted with administrative operations in addition to serving as a liaison for the coaches, championships and senior woman administrators committees.

Prior to joining the Southland Conference, Tealer was at Santa Clara University for four years, joining the Bronco's staff in November of 1995 as the compliance director and was elevated to SCU's Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Services and senior woman administrator five months later. In July of 1999, Tealer was appointed Assistant Athletic Director for Intercollegiate Sports in addition to her senior woman administrator position while providing direction for the sports of men's and women's basketball, women's volleyball, and men's and women's cross country.

While at SCU, Tealer was named to the NCAA Division I Management Council in 1998 as the Division I-AAA at-large representative. She assumed the West Coast Conference representative position (Oct. 1999-Jan. '00) and rejoined the Council as the Southland Conference representative in January of 2001. She also was a member of the NCAA Minority Opportunities and Interests Committee.

Tealer is a 1992 graduate of the University of San Diego, where she earned a degree in business administration while playing basketball four years for the Toreros. She also possesses a Juris Doctor degree from the University of Texas at Austin School of Law, where she was a member of the Thurgood Marshall Legal Society.

Tealer is a native of San Diego, but was born in Frankfurt, Germany, on March 26, 1970. She and her husband, Cedric, have a son, Dallas (born Sept. 24, 1999), and a daughter, Brooklyn (born Oct. 26, 2005), both of whom have conquered the finer points of the Gator chomp.

ESPN & SEC Reach Unprecedented 15-Year Agreement

On Aug. 25, 2008, ESPN and the Southeastern Conference (SEC) announced it had reached a milestone 15-year agreement beginning in 2009-10 and continuing through 2023-24.

The landmark deal - the longest national rights agreement in ESPN history -- will result in ESPN entities (ESPN, ESPN on ABC, ESPN2, ESPNU, ESPN Regional Television, ESPN360.com, ESPN Mobile TV, ESPN GamePlan, ESPN FULL COURT, ESPN International, ESPN Deportes, ESPN Classic) carrying more than 5,500 SEC events - including football, men's and women's basketball, Olympic sports and SEC Championships.

ESPN has televised the SEC since 1982. All national programming will fall under the branding "SEC on ESPN."

As part of this agreement with regard to SEC Women's Basketball:

ESPN AND ESPN2

SEC teams will make a minimum of 16 appearances (minimum of 4 conference games) on ESPN or ESPN2 and one of the networks will also televise the conference tournament championship game.

ESPNU

The network will also feature a minimum of 16 appearances (minimum of 4 conference games) by SEC teams, in addition to the SEC Tournament semifinals.

ESPN REGIONAL TELEVISION (KNOWN AS THE SEC NETWORK)

ERT will syndicate a game-of-the-week during the regular season. The markets that will air the package represent more than 54 million television households, or 47 percent of the U.S.

FOX Sports Net and SEC Women's Basketball

FOX Sports Net (FSN), the nation's leader in local sports, announced on July 15, 2009, a new multi-year television rights agreement with ESPN that expands its long-time partnership with the Southeastern Conference (SEC). ESPN secured the rights of SEC content in August 2008.

Beginning with the 2009-10 academic year, FSN's three regional sports networks serving the SEC territory – FOX Sports South, Sun Sports and FOX Sports Southwest – will be the outlets for a minimum of 91 SEC athletic events each year. Events will include:

- Seven live, exclusive football games
- 20 men's basketball games
- 24 women's basketball games (16 regular season, eight tournament)
- 16 baseball games (10 regular season, six tournament)
- 24 additional Olympic sporting events (softball, volleyball, soccer, gymnastics)

FSN will distribute these events to more than 24 million cable and satellite households across the SEC coverage area.

FOX Sports South – and its sister networks FOX Sports Carolinas and FOX Sports Tennessee – collectively reach more than 12.6 million cable and satellite television households in seven states in the Southeast, including Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina and Tennessee. Sun Sports reaches more than 6.5 million homes in Florida. FOX Sports Southwest reaches over 10.1 million cable and satellite TV homes in Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas, Oklahoma and parts of New Mexico.

CSS (COMCAST/CHARTER SPORTS SOUTHEAST)

The network will air a minimum of 16 regular-season games each year

SEC Expanded to 16-Game Regular-Season Schedule

For the first time since the 1997-98 season, the SEC increased the number of league games its 12 teams will play, expanding to a 16-game conference schedule for 2009-10.

Each school played every team once, continued its home-and-home series with its natural geographic rival and played two teams from both the Eastern and Western Divisions twice, without actually splitting into divisions and maintaining its original format with the teams battling for placement 1 through 12 in the standings and having one overall champion.

For the 2009-10 and 20010-11 seasons, the Gators will continue their two-game stint with Georgia, in addition to playing home-and-home series' against Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Alabama and Mississippi State.

"We will see in even more dramatic fashion how strong our league is," UF head coach Amanda Butler said. "Our fans will develop an even greater appreciation of how competitive the SEC is by being able to see more teams more often in the O'Connell Center. It will strengthen rivalries within our conference and allow ESPN and other television networks to showcase great battles that the whole country will be excited to watch."

2009-10 SEASON REVIEW

FLORIDA WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

2009-10 SEASON REVIEW

One more made shot or free throw, an extra offensive rebound put-pack, knocking down one additional open three-pointer and Florida's 2009-10 season might have been entirely different. But that's the way the ball bounces sometimes and it did for the Gators, who finished the year with a 15-17 overall record.

Amanda Butler, who completed her third year as head coach of her alma mater, always wants her team to be challenged and would never use tough competition as an excuse.

Florida, however, did face one of the nation's toughest schedules and battled every step of the way, while producing some stellar individual accomplishments that helped lead the Gators to the WNIT, the program's 16th postseason berth in the last 18 years.

CHALLENGE FROM START TO FINISH

Florida played 17 of its 29 regular-season games against teams that earned a postseason berth.

A DOZEN RANKED

Florida played 12 games against eight teams that were ranked in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll.

CAST YOUR VOTE

Vanderbilt, which the Gators played on Feb. 24, was the 12th of Florida's final 14 opponents that was at least receiving votes at game-time in the national polls.

TOUGH STRETCH

Six of Florida's final eight regular-season games were against teams ranked in the top-25 of the national polls, and the Gators went 2-6 to close out the stretch.

Florida played 14 games against 10 different teams that earned an NCAA Tournament berth in 2010, posting a 4-10 record against those foes (Florida State, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi State, St. John's, Southern U., Tennessee and Vanderbilt).

The Gators also played three different teams that competed in the 2010 Postseason WNIT, compiling a 2-1 record versus those clubs (Ole Miss, Old Dominion and Pittsburgh).

TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT

Florida's 61-54 win against South Florida in the WNIT first round was the team's 15th game decided by fewer than 10 points. The Gators were 8-7 in those contests.

REALLY TOO CLOSE!

ELEVEN of UF's 16 SEC games were decided by single digits and the Gators were 7-4 in those tight league games.

Florida's not the Only One in the SEC - A.K.A. The Cardiac Conference

There were a total of 96 SEC regular-season games played and 42 of them were decided by single digits! That's nearly half (43.8 percent) of all SEC games played.

Each of the 12 league teams were involved in at least three of those thrillers. There were SEVEN overtime games, with TWO needing double-overtime and one TRIPLE-overtime to determine the winner.

DANCING AGAIN

Florida's selection for the postseason WNIT was the 16th time in the last 18 years the Gators earned a postseason berth – including each of the last three years under third-year head coach Amanda Butler.

THIS BUTLER DID IT!

Amanda Butler is the eighth different full-time head coach in the history of the Florida women's basketball program ... and the FIRST to guide the Gators to a postseason berth in EACH of her first three years with the Gators!

She was the first to ever take Florida to the postseason in her first year with the Gators.

SMART PLAY

Six members of the team were among the 53 Gator student-athletes named to the 2010 Southeastern Conference Winter Academic Honor Roll.

The six recipients helped Florida tie for the most by a women's basketball program in this year's academic honors.

Earning recognition for their work in the classroom: Ebonie Crawford (Jr., Criminology), Jordan Jones (So., Business Administration), Trumae Lucas (So. Telecommunications Operations), Sharielle Smith (Sr., Telecommunications Productions), Steffi Sorensen (Sr., Telecommunications Management) and Susan Yenser (Sr./Graduate Student, Decision & Information Sciences).

Additionally, Lily Svete earned a spot on the SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll.

AND THE SCORING LEADER IS...

With her 16-point performance against South Florida in the 31st game of the season, Steffi Sorensen jumped to the top of Florida's scoring chart, where she finished the year after netting 15 points in the WNIT Second Round loss to Miami-Fla., and ended the year with a team-best 9.6 points per game.

Jordan Jones, who scored 10 against the Bulls and five versus the Hurricanes, had been the Gators' scoring leader since the second game of the season and ended the year as UF's second-leading scorer with 9.1 points per game.

WHO FINISHED HOT?

In the last three games of 2009-10 (SEC Tournament first round and two WNIT games), Steffi Sorensen averaged a team-best of 15.0 points and 4.7 rebounds, along with seven steals, and hit 50.0 percent (12-24) from the three-point arc.

Sophomore Azania Stewart stepped up to contribute 13.7 points and blocking eight shots, while converting 70.8 percent (17-24) of her field goal attempts.

Senior Lonnika Thompson dished 13 assists and collected 11 steals, while adding 4.7 points during the final three games of her collegiate career.

TOUGH LUCK, BUT FINISHED STRONG

Sophomore center Azania Stewart developed a stress fracture in her left foot and did not play in the final five regular-season games.

2009-10 SEASON REVIEW

The Gators' tallest player at 6-foot-4 and the SEC's field goal percentage leader (61.9%, fifth Gator to lead SEC in shooting effort), Stewart returned to the court for the SEC Tournament, playing 14 minutes and contributing eight points in three blocks. She followed that with an efficient 15-point, four-block performance in 18 minutes against South Florida (March 18) and led UF with 18 points on 7-of-10 shooting and six rebounds in the season finale at Miami.

BY GEORGE, SHE'S DOING IT!

With the late-season absence of center Azania Stewart, freshman Jennifer George stepped up her game even more than her already impressive rookie season has been.

Stewart was sidelined for the final five games of the regular-season, during which George emerged as UF's leading rebounder (7.0 rpg), free throw attempter (20) and maker (13), while ranking second for scoring (9.0 ppg) and steals (7).

ROOKIE REVIEW ... MORE ON GEORGE

Jennifer George ranked second among all SEC freshmen for rebounding (6.0 rpg) and blocked shots (16) in league games and deservedly was voted by the coaches to the seven-member SEC All-Freshman Team.

George swatted a career-high six blocks (most by a Gator this season) against South Carolina (Jan. 24), one of which came with nine seconds remaining and prevented SC from making the go-ahead basket and another block came with three seconds left in the first half that allowed UF to enter halftime tied.

WHO'S NEXT?

Coach Butler drew up a different lineup in nine of the last 11 games, with a total of 11 different starting lineups.

The group featuring Steffi Sorensen, Jordan Jones, Lonnika Thompson, Sharielle Smith and Azania Stewart totaled the most with 16 starts.

A total of 10 different Gators earned at least one start during the season.

DOUBLE-DRIBBLE

- Florida totaled 220 three-pointers - one shy of the program record - and marked the second time a Gator team sank 200 in a season; last year's record-setting campaign finished with 221 in 32 games behind the arc;
- Sharielle Smith tallied her 900th career point in the season finale;
- Steffi Sorensen was the only Gator who has started all 32 games and all except one in her two-year career, earning 63 total starting assignments ... all 63 in a row, the sixth-longest streak in program history!
- Sharielle Smith played in 125 games, tied for sixth all-time with DeLisha Milton and Dana Smith;
- Smith ended her with 713 career rebounds, topping the 700-plateau mark in the regular-season finale against Alabama;
- Sorensen totaled 161 three-pointers in her two years at UF, passing on Feb. 21 against Georgia Dana Smith's (1994-98) 142 treys for fourth all-time in the category;
- Sorensen also totaled 601 points during her two-year tenure at UF, topping the 550-mark during the regular-season finale and the 600-plateau in her final collegiate game;
- Senior Susan Yenser had 455 career points, with 142 of those coming in two seasons at UF (her 450th point came during the upset win over Georgia on Feb. 21);
- Amanda Butler has 98 career coaching wins in her five years on the sidelines, with 58 of those victories coming in three years at UF.

ALL WAS FINE FROM THE LINE

- Jordan Jones converted 11-for-11 during the 80-78 double-overtime win against Mississippi State (Feb. 7), hitting the final two with 2.7 seconds remaining to seal the win ... ending the year having converted 15-of-17 ...
- Azania Stewart shot 69.2 percent overall from the charity stripe, but coolly converted 80.6 percent (29-36) in SEC games. Both are marked improvements from her freshman year, when she sank just 55.3 and 50 percent, respectively from the charity stripe.
- Stewart calmly stepped to the line and hit both ends of a 1-and-1 with 14 seconds remaining against Ole Miss (Jan. 31), giving the Gators a three-point lead en route to the win. She began the conference slate compiling a career-long and team-season-high 15 consecutive from the line, including a 9-for-9 performance against Auburn (Jan. 7) and a 6-for-6 effort against Arkansas (Jan. 3);
- Sharielle Smith ended her career as UF's all-time free throw percentage leader (82.1, 192-234), shot 78.8 percent (52-66) from the line in 2009-10.

TOP TEAM SCORING HONORS

SEVEN different Gators assumed top team scoring honors in a game, with Steffi Sorensen (10), Azania Stewart (8), Sharielle Smith (7), Jordan Jones (4), Jennifer George (4), Trumae Lucas (3) and Lonnika Thompson (1) each emerging as UF's scoring leader during a game.

BEGAN WITH A BANG

Florida opened its 2009-10 campaign with a 7-for-18 performance from long range against Stetson, tied for the second-most treys in a season-opener.

The Gators dropped 220 three-pointers for an average of 6.88 treys per game, one shy of last year's record-setting 221 from long range.

DOWNTOWN DOUBLE-DIGITS

Four times in 2009-10 Florida connected on 10 or more three-pointers. The last display of the Gators' long range touch came on March 18 against South Florida, as Florida converted 10-of-31 (%).

On Jan. 31 at Ole Miss, as Florida converted 11-of-21 (52.4%).

On Nov. 29 at FIU, the squad hit a season-high 12-of-26 from beyond the arc for 46.2 percent.

Florida connected on 11 three-pointers in the Nov. 24 win over UAB (11-for-21), as five different Gators contributed in the shooting spree against Blazers.

During last year's record-setting performance beyond the arc, Florida had eight games where it sank 10 or more treys, and had five different Gators hit at least one in four games.

D-FENCE

The Gators have held NINE different opponents to 56 points or less, most recently South Florida (March 18), which managed just 54 points.

Mississippi State (Jan. 17) scored 52 points, the fewest UF has allowed in an SEC game since defeating Vanderbilt 62-51 on Jan. 24, 2002.

DOWNRIGHT DEFENSIVE

The Gators' 62-35 win over Southern (Dec. 20) was highlighted by a tremendous defensive effort, as Florida allowed the fewest points since the 34 by Coppin State on Dec. 10, 2008. The Jaguars hit just 20.3 percent (14-69) from the floor overall, including a 13.5 percent effort (5-37) in the second half, when the Gators outscored their visitors, 32-13.

Two games later, Florida forced Ohio into 39 turnovers, the most by a UF opponent since forcing 41 against Southwest Texas on Dec. 5, 1998.

The Gators followed that by holding Jacksonville to 54 points, including 18 in the first half, as the Dolphins shot just 26.5 percent from the floor during the Dec. 30 game.

In UF's SEC opener four days later, the Gators limited Arkansas to 53 points, marking the third consecutive game and the fourth in the last five outings that UF had held its opponent to under 55 points.

Against Auburn on Jan. 7, the Gators held the Tigers to just 15 first-half points, the fewest in a half by an opponent since Alabama State managed only 14 points on Dec. 28, 2006.

The 57 points Georgia scored during Florida's 64-57 win on Feb. 21, was the

2009-10 SEASON REVIEW

Lady Bulldogs' third lowest offensive output in the 56-game series history.

SORENSEN'S SEC STATS

Steffi Sorensen led Florida in SEC games for scoring (10.1 ppg), rebounding (6.4 rpg), steals (28), three pointers (43) and three-point percentage (35.8%), while ranking second with 29 assists.

STREAKS THAT ENDED

A handful of impressive individual streaks came to an end during the loss against LSU on Feb. 11:

- Jordan Jones, Azania Stewart and Sharielle Smith had been the only three Gators who had scored in every game, and all three were shutout against the Lady Tigers;
- Sharielle Smith had scored in 93 consecutive games, with the last time she did not score also coming against LSU (Feb. 8, 2006), when she missed her only field goal attempt.
- Jordan Jones had hit at least one three-pointer in each of the first 23 games, before missing all four attempts against LSU (Feb. 11). Her 23-game run is the second longest streak in UF history (it also was part of a 34-game streak that dated back to Jones' freshman year at South Carolina). Jones' 23-game streak sits only behind the 30-game run that Brandi McCain converted a trey in that spanned from the 2000 season into the 2001 campaign.

SORENSEN WAS SUPER!

Senior Steffi Sorensen had one of her best all-around games as a Gator in the team's 67-64 win at Ole Miss, leading UF with 18 points, six rebounds and tied for top honors with five assists. She nailed 6-of-7 three-pointers, tying her career-high for made treys, while the 85.7 percent efficiency mark is the highest by an SEC athlete this year. Her final three-pointer of the night moved Sorensen into sole possession of fifth place all-time in UF's record book in spite of playing just her second year wearing the Orange & Blue.

FIFTY IS NIFTY

The Gators presented Amanda Butler with her 50th win as Florida's head coach, when they defeated Jacksonville, 80-54, on Dec. 30. The 43 victories she compiled during her first two seasons were the most ever by a coach in their first two years at UF.

The milestone win also was Butler's 90th overall in her five years as a collegiate head coach, with the first 40 coming during her two years at UNC Charlotte.

MORE HAPPY RETURNS!

Junior Ebonie Crawford also saw her first action of the season during UF's Dec. 20 game against Southern, playing three minutes and collecting one rebound. She had been sidelined from tendonitis in her Achilles.

MORE THAN A SHOOTER

Senior Steffi Sorensen easily was the biggest surprise last year, as she walked onto the team and led the Gators' record-setting long-range campaign by hitting a team-best 78 treys at a 39.2 percent clip. She averaged 9.2 points during the course of the season and is UF's leading returning scorer in 2009-10.

But Sorensen was - and is - much more than a 3-point shooter. In SEC games, she averaged 9.8 points per SEC game (better than her overall scoring average of 9.1 ppg), shooting 37.1 percent from the three-point arc (36-97), the fourth-highest percentage among league players, while emerging as UF's second-leading rebounder in SEC games with 5.6 per outing.

Sorensen continued with her balanced stats line in the 2009-10 season-opener, contributing eight points, six rebounds, a career-high six steals and two assists.

OH NO!

Senior Jennifer Mossor tore the lateral meniscus in her left knee during practice on Thu., Nov. 12, 2009. She underwent surgery on Mon., Nov. 16 and began practicing with the team on Dec. 14. Mossor made her season debut on Dec. 20, playing eight minutes against Southern.

This was the third time in her four years that Mossor missed a season-opener because of injury.

Last year, she started the season-opener and scored a career-high 22 points. She started the first 16 games of the 2008-09 season and helped the Gators race out to a 15-1 record.

Unfortunately, her luck ran out and Mossor tore the anterior cruciate ligament (ACL) in her right knee during the game against Mississippi State on Jan. 8, 2009, and the injury forced her to miss the last 16 games of the year. At the time of her injury, Mossor was UF's fourth-leading scorer (9.1 ppg), had dished the third-most assists (37) and hit the third-most three-pointers (15).

Her collegiate debut was delayed two games because of a stress fracture in her left foot. Mossor missed the first six games of 2007-08 after she broke the pinky finger on her left hand on Oct. 27 and had surgery Oct. 30.

MASTER PLAN

Susan Yenser graduated with her bachelor's degree in Management on Dec. 19. Yenser was accepted into UF's Information Systems & Operations Management (ISOM) program and began coursework toward a master's degree in January of 2010.

Yenser spent the summer of 2009 working in a retail management position at Sears, completing the required internship she needed en route to earning her undergraduate degree. Not only did the summer internship help peak Yenser's interest in the business world, she was offered a full-time job at the end of her experience.

FINALLY!!!!

When Jordan Jones stepped on the court for the Gators' season-opener against Stetson on Nov. 14, 2009, it marked 601 days (or one year, seven months and 22 days) since the last time she played an organized collegiate basketball game.

Jones' return to the court was worth the wait, as she scored 15 of her 17 points in the first half, helping the Gators race out to a 44-25 halftime lead. She also added five assists and a pair of steals, while hitting 3-of-7 from beyond the arc.

Back on March 24, 2008, Jones hit 7-of-9 from 3-point range for 27 points in the second-round WNIT loss at N.C. State, one game after setting the WNIT postseason record and tied USC's program record with nine 3-pointers (9-of-17) against North Carolina A&T in a first-round win, tallying a career-high 31 points on 11-of-23 shooting from the floor.

QUITE A DEBUT

Freshman Jennifer George had one of the most well-rounded debuts in a Gator uniform in program history. Her 21 points tied for the third-most ever (junior Bridget Pettis had 30 at West Virginia on Nov. 24, 1991; freshman Bernice Mosby has 25 vs. Lamar on Nov. 24, 2002; freshman Terry Whitehead had 21 at Virginia on Nov. 21, 1981), as well as tied for the second-most ever by a true freshman in her debut. Her seven field goals tied for the fourth most, while her field-goal percentage of 77.8 (7-9) was second only to Murriel Page's 81.8 percent (9-11) effort against Arizona on Nov. 25, 1994.

George's 11 free throw attempts tied for the most-ever in a Gator debut, while her seven made from the line were the second most and her five offensive rebounds tied for the third-most.

July 1974 – Dr. Paula Welch is hired as the Lady Gators first official coach and teaches in the Women's Physical Education Department.

"One of my fondest memories was when the team and coaches were all gathered at Coach Ross' house watching the selections for the NCAA Tournament and the announcer said, 'Pack your bags Lady Gators. You're going to Ohio!' – our first NCAA appearance in history! Many screams, hugs and tears followed the announcement."

1993 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

In just her third season as Lady Gators Head Coach, Carol Ross was able to achieve a first in the program's 18-year history: earn a bid to the 48-team NCAA Tournament field. Led by senior captain LaTonya McGhee and junior guard Amanda Butler, Florida proved it belonged in postseason play. The Lady Gators opened the tournament on the road at Bowling Green State University on March 17 before a school-record crowd of 4,408 in Anderson Arena, which was also the third largest crowd attendance in a first round game. UF halted the Falcons' perfect 13-0 home record when McGhee banked in a 15-footer with two seconds remaining to give UF the thrilling 69-67 victory. Merlakia Jones led UF with 18 points and Bridget Pettis added 17 in the historic win. The Lady Gators traveled again in the second round, but came up short against postseason veteran Virginia in front of 5,740 Cavalier faithful. McGhee ended her career with a 14-point effort but more importantly helped lay the foundation for seven consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

1994 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Under the leadership of senior captain Amanda Butler, the Lady Gators reached the NCAA Tournament for the second straight year. The Gators matched a school-record 22 wins and finished third in the SEC. Junior Merlakia Jones led UF offensively with 18.6 points per game, while DeLisha Milton averaged a double-double of 11.7 points and 11.5 rebounds during her freshman campaign. The Lady Gators earned the No. 4 seed in the NCAA West Region and were eligible to play host to their first round game, but were forced to travel to College Station, Texas, due to a Rod Stewart concert scheduled in the O'Connell Center. Florida rallied from a 14-point deficit against hosting Texas A&M and tied the score at 74 with 2:31 remaining after senior Kerry Cremeans caned a three-pointer off an assist from Butler. Takilya Davis later hit a jumper to give UF a 76-74 lead. With the score knotted at 76, the Gators turned the ball over with 21 seconds left and the Aggies converted two free throws with four ticks on the clock to end UF's season.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators earned their third consecutive bid to the NCAA Championship, one of just 22 schools to advance to "The Dance" for the third straight year. Led by captains DeLisha Milton and Crystal Parker, the team won a school-record 24 wins and finished fourth in the SEC. During the first round of the NCAA East Regional in Charlottesville, Va., UF played Radford and easily defeated the Highlanders 89-49. Both Merlakia Jones and Milton produced double-doubles and Dana Smith contributed three second-half treys. In the second round, and for the second time in three years, the Lady Gators faced a ranked Virginia squad on its home floor. The team was in position for an upset, but the Cavalier proved to be too strong, winning 72-67. UF was led by Merlakia Jones' 27 points, who became the first Gator to eclipse the 2,000-point plateau, ending her career with 2,001. Freshman Murriel Page showed signs of the All-American she would later develop into, averaging 10.6 points and 7.2 rebounds during her rookie season.

1996 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the fourth time in school history, the Lady Gators secured a spot in the NCAA Tournament. Led by team captains DeLisha Milton and Mahogany Hudson, Florida earned the No. 5 seed in the Mideast Region and became one of 16 teams to earn four straight NCAA bids. Crystal Parker also became the first player in Lady Gator history to be a member of four NCAA Tournament teams. UF ran into red-shot San Francisco in the opening round, falling 68-61, as the Lady Dons marched into the Sweet 16 by upsetting host Duke in the next game. Former Gator Amanda Butler broke into the coaching ranks this year, when Head Coach Carol Ross hired her as an assistant coach at the start of the season.

1997 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 1996-97 academic year marked the 25th season of women's varsity athletics at the University of Florida and the Lady Gator Basketball team ensured it would not be soon forgotten, staging the most impressive postseason run in program history. First-Team All-American DeLisha Milton, along with fellow co-captain Mahogany Hudson, led the Lady Gators a 24-9 overall record. As the No. 3 seed in the Mideast Region, UF was selected to play host to an NCAA Sub-Regional for the first time and responded, thumping Florida International, 92-68, behind 21 points from Dana Smith and a career-high six 3-pointers from Talatha Bingham. Murriel Page scored 35 points with 14 rebounds in a 92-78 victory over Southern California and the Lady Gators marched into the Sweet 16 for the first time in school history. UF's magical run did not stop there, as UF routed fifth-ranked and second-seeded Louisiana Tech, 71-57, to advance to the Elite Eight. The historical season finally came to an end when second-ranked and top-seeded Old Dominion managed a 53-51 decision, as UF had three shots in the final 10 seconds that would have tied the score, but all just rolled around the rim.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Led by First-Team All-American Murriel Page and her fellow senior co-captains Mahogany Hudson and Dana Smith, the Lady Gators fought through an injury-plagued season to a 23-9 record, their fifth consecutive 20-win season and a second-place finish in the Southeastern Conference. UF became one of just 12 schools to compete in each of the last six NCAA Tournaments, while earning its second consecutive trip to the Sweet 16. UF was rewarded for its outstanding regular-season play, being named one of 16 schools to host an NCAA Sub-Regional, which it did for the second straight year. In a bracket plagued with upsets (highlighted by No. 16-seed Harvard defeating No. 1-seed Stanford), the third-seeded Lady Gators couldn't continue the fun as they fell to No. 2-seeded Duke, 71-58.

1999 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The Lady Gators knew that matching the success of the past two seasons would be tough, especially after losing three key seniors. Even with an uphill battle, Florida, led by team captain Talatha Bingham, was still strong enough to earn its seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament bid - one of just 11 teams to compete in the "Big Dance" every year since 1993. UF was also one of a record-setting eight SEC schools to secure a bid. The Lady Gators would not dance long, however, dropping a frustrating 87-84 overtime decision to Arizona in the opening round.

2001 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

The 2000-01 season was one of the most exciting in school history, as the Lady Gators tied a school record with 24 wins and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Captains Tombi Bell, Misty Knight and Tamara Stocks were fueled all season by what they felt was a snub from the 2000 event and led Florida to a second-place tie in the Southeastern Conference, winning a program-best 11 league games. This was the eighth overall trip to the "Big Dance" for the Gators and their third time playing host to the opening rounds.

2002 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

For the ninth time in 10 years, Carol Ross successfully led the Lady Gators to the NCAA Tournament. Stunningly, it would be her last because six days after the final horn sounded on Florida's opening-round loss, Ross stepped down as winningest head coach in school history, with a record of 247-121. The team was led by senior tri-captains Monique Cardenas, Lindsey DeLoach and Brandi McCain.

2004 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Head Coach Carolyn Peck guided UF to the greatest one-year turnaround in school history, bouncing back from a 9-19 record the previous season to a 19-11 record and an NCAA Tournament bid. Captains Vanessa Hayden, Sarah Lowe and Kelly Stevenson led the Gators to a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the second round for the sixth time in school history. UF overcame 16,000 deafening New Mexico fans at The Pit with an opening-round 68-56 win against the hosting Lobos, before falling in the next game to Baylor, which went on to win the NCAA title the following season.

2006 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

Fueled by two of the biggest upset wins in program history, the Gators earned their way back into the NCAA Tournament for the 11th time. Senior tri-captain Sarah Lowe hit the game-winning free throws with 3.2 seconds remaining in overtime to help the Gators upset No. 2 LSU, 79-78, in UF's final home game. A few nights later, senior tri-captain Brittany Davis poured in a career-high 29 points to help stun No. 5 Tennessee in the regular-season finale, as UF became just the second unranked team ever to defeat the Lady Vols in Knoxville. The Gators, who raced out to the best 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15-game starts in program history en route to a 21-9 overall record, received the No. 6 seed in the NCAA Albuquerque Region but dropped their opening-round game to New Mexico, 83-59.

2009 NCAA TOURNAMENT TEAM

With senior Sha Brooks leading the backcourt and senior Marsahe Dotson patrolling the frontcourt, the Gators won four games against nationally-ranked teams, including three upset victories, and earned their 12th NCAA Tournament appearance. Amanda Butler became the sixth woman in NCAA history to play for and later coach that same team to a top-25 ranking, as the 2008-09 squad ranked as high as No. 9 in the Feb. 9 AP Poll. Newcomer Steffi Sorensen led a record-setting three-point shooting display, as the Gators set new marks with 221 three-pointers and hitting with a 36.5 percent accuracy mark. UF downed Temple, 70-57, in the NCAA First Round and tied a program record with its 24th win of the season. The Gators fell in the next round to eventual champion Connecticut, which played on its home court and raced to an undefeated season.

Marshae Dotson is congratulated by head coach Amanda Butler after Dotson became the 20th and most recent Gator to join the 1,000-point club, eclipsing the milestone against Mississippi State on Feb. 10, 2008.

On Dec. 22, 2007 versus Saint Louis, junior Sha Brooks became the 19th Gator to score 1,000 points during her career, nailing a three-pointer from the right side of the arc that put her over the top of the milestone. She eclipsed the mark in her 72nd career game, the seventh fastest in program history.

Sophia Witherspoon (left) and Rhvonja Smith both scored the 1,000th point of their respective careers during the same game - Dec. 13, 1990 versus Alabama-Huntsville.

THE STEPHEN C. O'CONNELL CENTER

STEPHEN MORTON

A record-sellout crowd of 12,222 fans packed the O'Connell Center on Feb. 11, 2001 to watch the Gators battle Tennessee. It remains the largest crowd ever to watch a regular-season women's basketball game on any level - college, pro or international - inside the state of Florida.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is the game-day home of Gator Basketball.

The $14 million dollar facility, named for former University of Florida president Stephen C. O'Connell (196773), has become a showcase for collegiate basketball. The multipurpose sports center features a main arena, which is capable of seating 12,000 spectators and fans, covering more than 3.6 acres and containing 292,000 square feet.

The structure housed the Gator Basketball offices prior to the opening of the new UF Basketball Complex in October of 2001.

In addition to the main arena, the O'Connell Center houses the practice court, two weight rooms, a natatorium, an indoor track, a private gymnastics arena, dance studio, martial arts studio and several classrooms. The indoor track, which underwent resurfacing during the summer of 2002, and the Olympic size pool are considered amongst the fastest race locations in the country.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center is also the site of University of Florida graduation ceremonies, as well as many other university functions, including Career Day. The facility has also accommodated numerous NCAA championship events, concerts, step shows, comedians, guest speakers, Disney shows, conventions and banquets.

The Stephen C. O'Connell Center has been the site of all Gator Basketball games since its opening in 1981.

The Gators' home court has a championship-feel to it -- literally! During the 2006 national championship celebration for the men's team, the UAA administration unveiled the 2006 Final Four floor, which it purchased so that both teams could play on for the 2006-07 season once it was refinished and Gatorized. Also new in the O'Connell Center for the 2006-07 season was four 12' x 16' videoboards (10 mm resolution). The total cost of the video project was $2.5 million.

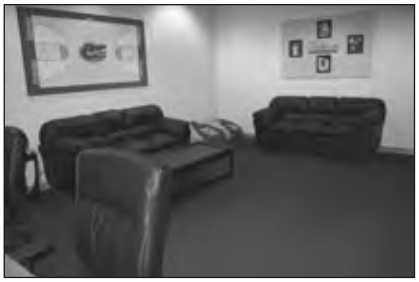
FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX

The Basketball Complex underwent a $1.8 million facelift that was completed in September of 2007, when dynamic floor-to-ceiling graphics, display cases and video displays were installed throughout the building.

Florida's state-of-the-art basketball practice facility opened in October of 2001, with the initial $10 million securing the two-story, 47,505-square foot facility highlighted by full-sized practice courts for both the Gator men's and women's teams, in addition to the coaches' offices and team locker rooms.

FLORIDA BASKETBALL COMPLEX



The Gator locker room is a home-away-from-home.

The Gator Women's Basketball Wall of Honor, which is along the East wall of the balcony that overlooks the Terry Frost Women's Practice Court, was created in the spring of 2009. Coach Butler selected as the initial honoree Paula Welch, the first full-time head coach in program history.

The Terry Frost Women's Practice Court features six baskets, Conner (Uniforce with NIKE Grind) wood floor and observation/video taping balcony. As part of the 2007 facelift, a Coach's Command Center with internal AV equipment is housed behind thick plex along the wall of the practice court for coaches and players to watch immediate on-court video.

The athletic training room, which houses its own whirlpool, is conveniently located steps away from the practice court.

The 1,900-square foot weight room features multiple strength and conditioning stations and ample room for agility and core drills, while providing office space for the strength coaches. Part of the 2007 facelift included dynamic super graphics displayed along the walls of the weight room.

Images of Gator All-Americans adorn the corner between the hallway's to the team locker room and the training room, practice court and weight room corridor.
